M. A. TYSON AND SISTERS' SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES,

On F street, between 12th and 13th.

THE DUTIES of this long-established Institution will be resumed on Monday, the 16th of September, and it is desirable that the pupils should be punctual in their attendance on that day, for an early organization of the different classes. Parents and guardians who wish to eater their daughters are respectfully invited to do so previous to the opening.

The location of this Institution is in the most healthy part of the city, the water excellent, the air pure, and the play-grounds sufficiently large to permit the pupils to use healthful exercise. The several apartments are spacious and well ventilated, and the health, convenience and comfort of the pupils at all times regarded.

All apparatus necessary for illustrating the various branches of natural science is furnished, and the services of a professed French teacher secured.

For references, &c., circulars may be obtained at the book-stores of R. Farnham, Taylor & Maury, or at the Seminary. After the first of September, the Principals will take great pleasure in showing those wishing to enter scholars through their establishment.

The book is furnished with a full index, which regards its research is in every respect.

topic. The book is furnished with a full index, which greatly increases its usofulness, and is in every respect not only a very valuable kind of work, but undoubtedly the best of its class extant.

Were it generally possessed, carefully studied, and faithfully used, the result would be the introduction of a new era in biblical knowledge. It is commended to all clergymen, to students, to families, and especially to Sabbathschool teachers. The good paper, fair type, and mechanical execution of the work, are worthy of its contents. The second atereotyped edition of this book, being its twenty-fifth edition (issued in 1850), is a great improvement on former editions, in the number and arrangement of topics. The fact that 41,000 copies of it have been published within a few years, to meet the gradually increasing demand for it, is a gratifying proof of the estimation in which it is held.

EDITORS' CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editors of the American Telegraph GENTLEMEN: Having been acquainted with the merits of the case of distress on the Point, referred to in your paper some evenings past, and which no doubt was seen by nearly all of our citizens, as it was previously published in the Clipper-and, between both papers must have gone to nearly every part of our city-we were curious to know how much would be given by the benevolent and humane to meet this and other cases of distress; and upon inquiry found that the whole city, owning as it does its thousands and hundreds of thousands, could only afford to deposit for their relief the meagre and paltry sum of five dollars.

We have no doubt the Tract Society is very thankful to have even this sum to assist in relieving the wants of the distressed; but we would respectfully ask if this is to be considered a fair sample of the benevolence of the citizens of Washington.

Now, these persons must be supported by the benevolence of the community, as they cannot support themselves; and certainly no one will think that the above sum will be sufficient for that one family—passing by the many other cases of similar destitution abounding in our midst, arising from sickness and want of em-

For instance, a poor family was visited by the members of the Tract Society lately, where the husband, a skeleton of a form, was found hopelessly extended upon a bed, where he perhaps had lain a long time, having lost the lower part of his body by a slow mortification, which had to some extent since healed, but leaving him in a state of wretchedness and agonizing pain, utterly indescribable, to be taken care of and supported by a distressed woman, his wife, with scarcely any ability, if any whatever. Another case also of a poor sick woman, a widow with a family of six children, who, upon being prescribed for by the physician, said that she would be very willing to take the medicine, but, bursting into a flood of tears, told him that she had no money to get it. She also told the tract distributors that she had not had a cent with which to go to market. And many other kinds of cases also of those who are out of employment, and who are deserving of aid.

Now, surely, these cases must all be attended to, and by our community; and we are of that class who believe that there are people enough and ability enough to do all this, and leave surplus, if necessary, for coming time.

Did Christians really feel in their hearts what they profess with their tongues, that they are but the stewards of the Lord, of the property entrusted to their care, we apprehend there would be but little difficulty in getting any amount whatever for such objects.

And we hold, that perhaps there are none that cannot give something, and none that can-not lay by something every month for such objects, and, as a consequence, none that ought not to do so. Now, will our citizens refuse, with so much suffering in our midst?

Mr. Grav's hand is ever open at his Book store on 7th street, to receive whatever each may have to give, however small or large the amount, to be faithfully appropriated to the relief of the indigent and distressed by the members of the Tract Society, of which he is

BETTER THAN GOLD!

PORTSMOUTH, July 9, 1851.

Mr. J. E. Boush—Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to make known the benefit I have derived from Dr. Hampton's VEGETABLE TINCTURE. For a number of years I suffered from disease, but to a greater degree for the last three years. One of the forms of my disease was dyspep-size. From this dreadful maindy I suffered to such an ex-tent that life was really a burden. The attack of it on me was different to that on any other person of whom I have heard; at times it was like the palpitation of the heart; there was a constant thumping and beating withnear; there was a constant thumping and beating with-out integmission about the region of my heart, chest, and stomach; some of the stacks would last for weeks; my stomach was much distended, with constant pain, great weakness, and constipation of the bowels. I could not eat the most simple food without pain. I also suffered greatly from disease of the kidneys, with constant pain in the back, that I could walk only with great difficulty. in the back, that I could walk only with great difficulty. I tried nearly sill of the most celebrated patent medicines of the day, but found no relief. I had also the best medical attendance. One of my physicians frankly told me it was of no use for me to be paying him for advice, as he could do me no good. I gave up almost in despair, and the other hand discrete activities in another.

I now feel my some hours, the the order for eactived. The commended the tincture to a number of my friends, who have also been relieved by it. Some of the cures have been as rapid and equally wonderful as mine.

I present my respects to Messers. Mortuner & Mowbray, the proprietors of this valuable medicine, and say to them the valuable intering. I have no doubt many valuable lives will be prolonged by its use. I hope the afflicted will east aside their prejudices and give it a trial. Yours most respectfully,

The above is extracted from a letter from a gentleman sixty years of age, and of high character. He says: "I have given but a faint idea of my sufferings; I feel inadquate to the task." We also have received, in the last few days, letters from two of our most worthy and wellfew days, letters from two of our most worthy and well-known effizens, giving two remarkable cures of spinal disease. But yesterday one of the oldest merchants reported that he was cured of neuralgia of the head, of years standing, and so bad that his teeth fell out from its effects. Call and see letters. Was there ever so many cures, wonderful cures, made by any other medicine. All we sak of the afflicted is that they try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, the great purifier of the flood and cure for all chronic diseases, as dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and all complaints of the stomach, bowels, &c.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

BEACK WOOD'S MAGAZINE,

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

WING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBERGH MOAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesisatical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmern, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanma, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.

of Geology, Massachusetts.*

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Scarz—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant,

EDWARD HITCHCOCK. Respectfully and sincerely, your congec servant.

*The works alluded to as having been examined and recommended are as follows: A new and popular Pictorial Description of the United States, Pictorial History of the American Revolution, Scenes and Sketches of Continental Europe, Description of Great Britain and Ireland, Pictorial Yamily Annual, Treasury of Knowledge, Information for the People, The Family Instructor, Pictorial Sunday Book, Bible Biography, Bible History, and second series of The Wonders of the World.

Gentlemen of respectability and of good address wanted to sell the above popular Pictorial Works.' Full particulars of the principles and profits of the Agency will be given on application either personally or by letter. The postage must in all cases be paid.

Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay perticular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary faciliies, and have been unusually successful.

Having full lists and reports of nearly all the Attorneys in the United States, we are at all times prepared to furnish you, gratuitously, the names of good and responsible lawyers in any part of the United States and Canadas.
Connected with our Agency is a Commissioner for nearly all the States, who is enabled to afford every facility and legal form for preparing secounts, &c., for immediate use, thereby avoiding a selay eften fatal to the collection of a debt.

THE SUBSCRIBERS will despatch SPECIAL MESSENGERS, two or more times per month, by Steamships, via CHAGRES and PANAMA, in charge of percels, jewelry, valuables and malisable matter, which will in all cases arrive in San Francisco by the mail steamers, and be delivered in advance of the mail.

We beg to announce to the public that we have entered into councion with the heaviest transportation house on the Isthmus, who are bound to us to transport our goods from Chagres to Panams, in advance of all other expresses, and baving made arrangements with the U. S. Mail and all other steamers on the Facile, for the carriage of our goods, we are prepared to guarantee their delivery in San Francisco within a specified time.

In addition to the superior qualities of the line, for the transaction of Merchandise, its manifest advantages over the U. S. Mail and all other competitors, in the transportation of letters and parcels between the Facilic and Atlantic States, are well known and already generally appreciated by the public. The value of a nercantile letter, delivered by us three or four days in advance of all other competition, being properly estimated.

We have also catabilished agencies in GUATAQUIL, CALLAG, and VALPARAISO, for which ports, and other competition, being properly estimated.

We have also catabilished agencies in GUATAQUIL (CALLAG, and VALPARAISO, for which ports, and other cities on the South American coast, we are prepared to receive LETTERS and PARCELS, which will be promptly despatched to their destination by our agent in Fanama.
